the negro witnesses. Many of them probably were never earning so much money in all their lives. The Senate allows a per diem of $3 to witnesses called before any committee. The pay begins with the time they start for Washington and ends when they are back home again. In addition they are $1,259,599,278. It took an army of paid their actual traveling expenses in While the witnesses are in Washington they must "find themselves." Of course, $3 a day would not pay hotel bills for Washington for $1 a day, and have at least $2 a day, or about $60 a month, left for wages.
